What is an Edition?

SIGNING & NUMBERING AN EDITION OF PRINTS

An EDITION of prints is a set of identical prints printed at the same time from the same MATRIX. A MATRIX is the object or surface an image is created on and prints are created from.

On an edition information is written in pencil in the space beneath (and between the edges) of the image:

- Sign your name under the right corner.
- Add a title in the center.
- Number the print under the left corner. The first number tells which print it is in the order it was printed. The second number tells how many prints are in the edition. Example: 2/3 (second print out of a total of 3 prints).

SYMBOLS:
Symbols are a big part of Egyptian art. Symbols are often added to art to help tell a story. Check out some Egyptian symbols and meanings below:

EGYPTIAN SARCOPHAGUS

An Egyptian sarcophagus is where the mummy of a leader or important person in Egyptian culture was stored. Sarcophagi were often heavily decorated, painted with bright colors, and sometimes painted with gold.

SARCOPHAGUS HEAD: Draw an oval for the face. Add eyes, nose, and mouth. Add hair or a headdress. Use lines and shapes to create patterns to decorate the body.
