Teacher Notes

I love to ease into January with this mural project which fills empty spaces and bulletin boards around the school after holiday decorations have been taken down.

• MURAL TIPS:

- If the blue paper is in good shape when the snowman is filled with toilet paper add white roll paper for the ground:
  - Cut along the lower outline of the snowman's bottom circle.
  - Cut a strip of white roll paper (same width as blue paper).
  - Cut gentle hills along the edge of the white paper.
  - Slide cut the edge of the white paper under the bottom circle and glue it to the blue paper.
- Scarf: Cut along the outline on either side of the snowman's neck, push the end of the scarf through and tape on the back. Tie the scarf in front, gluing ends where to the snowman or on the background paper to make it look like it's blowing in the wind.
  - You can also cut a scarf shape out of construction paper and glue it on top of the snowman rather than wrapping it around the snowman and tying it.
